

ITME MIDTERM REVIEWER

QUIZ 1

1. What is weemail?
- Email accessed through a web browser
2. Which of the following is an example of Webmail?
- Gmail
3. Where are Webmail messages stored?
- On remote servers provided by the service
4. What is one common problem with Webmail?
- Limited storage space and intrusive ads
5. Which of these is NOT a Webmail provider?
- Adobe Reader
6. What is an email client?
- A software that lets users access and manage emails from their computer
7. Which protocol allows Email Clients to sync messages across multiple devices?
- IMAP
8. Which of these is a main problem with Email Clients?
- Sync issues with multiple computers
9. Microsoft Outlook is an example of:
- An Email Client
10. Which tool can help recover lost emails in an Email Client?
- OnTrack EasyRecovery
11. How can lost emails in Webmail often be recovered?
- Checking the Trash or Spam folders
12. Which statement best describes the key difference between Webmail and Email Clients?
- Webmail is browser-based, Email Clients are software-based
13. Which factor should be considered when choosing an email provider?
- Storage, Security, and special features
14. Gmail integrates closely with:
- Google Workspace(docs, drive, Meet)
15. Which provider offers 1 TB of free storage?
- Yahoo Mail
16. Which email provider is based in Switzerland and is known for end-to-end encryption?
- ProtonMail
17. Which German-based provider focuses on encryption communication?
- Tutanota
18. Which provider allows custom domains with free accounts?
- Mail.com
19. Which provider is known for its integration with Zoho CRM and business apps?
- Zoho Mail
20. Which of the following is a limitation of iCloud Mail?
- Limited storage (5 GB shared)
21. AOL Mail's main strength is?
- Unlimited storage and virus protection
22. GMX Mail's advantage is:
- Unlimited storage and 50 MB attachment limit
23. Yandex Mail offers?
- Unlimited storage and antivirus scanning
24. Which provider is among the oldest free email services?
- Yahoo! Mail
25. Which provider is especially known for simple, ad-supported service with 5 GB storage?
- Lycos Mail
26. What is one major advantage of using an Email Client?
- Works without an internet connection for previously downloaded emails

27. Which provider is most suitable for businesses needing CRM integration?
- Zoho Mail
28. Which privacy-focused provider offers only 500 MB free storage?
- ProtonMail
29. Which protocol is commonly used by Email Clients for retrieving mail?
- POP3 or IMAP
30. Which factor makes Webmail more convenient than Email Clients?
- Accessible anywhere with a browser
31. WEBMAIL is an email service accessed through a web browser.
32. Gmail, Yahoo! Mail, and Outlook.com are examples of WEBMAIL.
33. A EMAIL CLIENT is a software program that lets users access and organize emails without using a browser.
34. Email Clients connect to servers using protocols such as POP3 and IMAP.
35. One main problem of Webmail is LIMITED storage space.
36. Free Webmail services often display ADS in the inbox.
37. OUTLOOK/MICROSOFT OUTLOOK is an Email Client that integrates with Microsoft office apps.
38. Lost emails in Webmail can often be recovered by checking the TRASH/SPAM folder.
39. The tool ONTRACK EASYRECOVERY is used to recover lost emails in Email Clients.
40. ACCESS METHOD is the key difference in how Webmail and Email Clients are access.
41. Yahoo! Mail provides up to 1 TB of free storage.
42. AOL Mail is known for unlimited storage and being one of the earliest email services.
43. YANDEX Mail is a Russian-based service offering unlimited storage and antivirus protection.
44. TUTANOTA Mail is a German provider focused on end-to-end encrypted communication.
45. PROTON Mail is based in Switzerland and provides end-to-end encryption.
46. Zoho Mail integrates with ZOHO CRM and business applications.
47. ICLOUD is an Apple-based free email service integrated with iCloud
48. MAIL.COM Mail allows users to select from 200+ custom domain names.
49. A key factor when choosing an email provider is STORAGE, SECURITY, SPECIAL FEATURES.
50. One of the best practice in email management is enabling 2FA/ 2 FACTOR AUTHENTICATION for account security.

QUIZ 2

1. Which of the following best describes a search engine?
- A software tool that finds information on the internet using keywords
2. What is the main difference between a search engine and a directory?
- Directories are organized by humans, search engines use algorithms
3. A meta-search engine:
- Send queries to multiple search engines at once
4. Which of these is an example of using specific keywords?
- Searching "Endangered animals in the Philippines 2025"
5. Which search strategy helps when different sources use different terms?
- Synonyms
6. Which search operator is used for exact phrases?
- Quotation marks " "
7. What should you do if your first search doesn't give good results?
- Refine or Reformulate the keywords
8. A specific question like "When was Facebook founded?" is best answered using:
- Search engines like Google
9. Boolean logic operator AND:
- Combines keywords to narrow down results
10. Boolean operator OR:
- Finds result that contain at least one of the terms
11. Boolean operator NOT is used to:
- Exclude unwanted terms from a search
12. Which symbol can replace missing letters to find related words?
- * (asterisk)
13. The operator NEAR is used for:
- Proximity searching - words appear close to each other
14. Parentheses () in Boolean searches are used to:
- Control the order of operations in a search
15. Filtering by "filetype:pdf" will return
- Only PDF files
16. Which filter would you use to find only recent articles?
- Date
17. Limiting results to .edu domains means:
- Only university and educational sites will appear
18. Why should we evaluate information sources online?
- Because anyone can publish online, and not all information is credible
19. When evaluating authorship, you should check:
- Name, credentials, and affiliation
20. Which of the following is a red flag for poor content quality?
- Outdated information with no sources
21. Excessive ads, broken links, and too many typos indicate:
- Low-quality appearance of a site
22. HTTPS in a website address indicates:
- The site uses encryption for secure communication
23. Which search process step involves defining exactly what you are looking for?
- State or reformulate your question
24. Using CTRL + F in a browser helps by:
- Highlighting keywords in a document or webpage
25. "Poverty site:.gov" means the search will:
- Show poverty-related results only from government websites
26. Which type of question looks for factual answers such as dates or names?
- Specific question
27. Why is triangulating sources important?
- To compare multiple independent sources for accuracy
28. Which of these is NOT a meta-search engine feature?
- Requires learning advanced syntax
29. When checking a website's appearance, what should you avoid?
- Excessive pop-ups and unprofessional design
30. A good research habit is to:
- Evaluate authorship, content, and appearance
31. A SEARCH ENGINE is a tool that finds information on the internet using keywords.
32. A DIRECTORIES is organized by humans into categories.
33. A META-SEARCH engine sends queries to multiple search engines at once.
34. Using SPECIFIC keywords makes your search clearer and more accurate.
35. Putting words in QUOTATION marks ensures exact phrase searching.
36. Boolean operator NOT is used to exclude terms from search results.
37. Boolean operator OR finds results with at least one of the keywords.
38. Boolean operator AND combines terms to narrow down search.
39. The NEAR operator ensures two words appear close to each other.
40. Using PARENTHESSES in Boolean searches controls the order of operations.
41. The ASTERISK symbol is used as a wildcard to match word variations.
42. Filtering by DATE allows you to get results from a certain time period.
43. Limiting results to a .GOV domain ensures you only see government websites.
44. Filtering by LANGUAGE lets you find results in a chosen language.
45. Filtering by FILE TYPE allows you to search for specific file types like PDF.
46. Checking AUTHORSHIP helps determine who wrote the information and their credibility.
47. Checking CONTENT ensures the content is accurate, updated, and evidence-based.
48. Checking APPEARANCE ensures the site looks professional and not sketchy.
49. Using TRIANGULATING sources means comparing 2-3 independent references for accuracy.
50. A good research principle is: Good research begins with knowing WHERE TO LOOK and WHAT TO TRUST.

